Where Good Things Happen To Bad Checks...

NSFdeposit is a FREE and effective service to your business to help you collect more money from NSF checks. NSFdeposit works in conjunction with your bank. At no charge to you, NSF checks that were once returned to you for collection will be sent to the NSFdeposit Processing Center. There, all returned checks are strategically re-presented to the check writer's account up to two additional times, greatly improving the chances of collection.

now you can
accept checks
with confidence!

These increased collection opportunities are further enhanced by strategic timing and electronic prioritization, increasing the chances that funds will be collected. And when they are, you get 100% of the face value of the check, which is automatically deposited into your bank account.
